CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

KABATAANG INSPIRASYON SA SERBISYO, LIDERATO AT PAG-UNLAD (KISLAP) YOUTH VOLUNTEERS

2026

A Youth Community-Based Volunteer Organization

PREAMBLE

We, the youth volunteers of Kabataang Inspirasyon sa Serbisyo, Liderato at Pag-unlad (KISLAP) Youth Volunteers, united by our commitment to volunteerism, responsible leadership, community service, compassion, environmental responsibility, inclusivity, and sustainable development, hereby establish this Constitution and By-Laws. We further recognize that youth volunteers are catalysts for positive change, capable of inspiring their fellow youth to participate actively in addressing the needs and challenges of their communities. Through meaningful volunteerism, KISLAP seeks to encourage young people to share their time, talents, skills, and compassion in the service of others while promoting unity, responsibility, and active citizenship.

We commit ourselves to developing and implementing youth-led projects and programs that respond to community needs and contribute to the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). Through collaboration with communities, schools, organizations, and other stakeholders, we aim to create sustainable initiatives that protect the environment, promote social well-being, empower people, and improve the quality of life for present and future generations.

CHAPTER I

LOGO AND IDENTITY

A. INTRODUCTION

The KISLAP – Youth Volunteers logo is a meaningful representation of the organization's commitment to youth volunteerism, community service, responsible leadership, and sustainable development. Every element, design, and color reflects the vision of empowering young people to become a source of inspiration and positive change in their communities. The word “KISLAP,” which means a spark or flash of light, symbolizes the idea that one young person's willingness to serve can inspire others to participate and create meaningful action. Through its symbols of light, youth, education, unity, and sustainability, the logo represents KISLAP's goal of developing youth-led projects and programs aligned with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) while promoting cooperation, compassion, leadership, and active citizenship.

Section 1. OFFICIAL LOGO AND MEANING

KISLAP WORD

“Kislap” means a spark or flash of light, symbolizing the inspiration that motivates young people to volunteer and serve their community. It represents the idea that one small act of service can inspire others and grow into a larger movement for positive change.

Golden Sunburst / Light

The radiant golden light represents hope, inspiration, knowledge, and the potential of the youth to create positive change. Its spreading rays symbolize how the spirit of volunteerism can reach and inspire more young people.

2026 Number
The year stablished of the Kabataang Inspirasyon sa Serbisyo, Liderato at Pag-unlad Youth Volunteers Community-based Organization in Mauban, Quezon.

Two Small Stars
The two stars represent additional sources of inspiration, opportunities, and fellow youth who can be encouraged to participate in community service. Together with the central light, they emphasize unity and the power of shared inspiration.

Three Human Figures
The three figures symbolize young volunteers united in service, leadership, and community action. Their different colors represent diversity and inclusion, showing that youth from different backgrounds can work together toward common goals.

Golden/Yellow Figure
The yellow figure represents hope, energy, creativity, and inspiration. It symbolizes the youth who becomes the first spark of volunteerism and encourages others to take part in meaningful community activities.

Blue Figure
The blue figure represents responsible leadership, trust, peace, integrity, and commitment. Its central position emphasizes the importance of developing young leaders who can organize, guide, and responsibly serve their communities.

Green Figure
The green figure symbolizes growth, nature, sustainability, and environmental responsibility. It reflects the organization's commitment to youth-led programs that protect the environment and support the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Open Book
The open book represents education, knowledge, learning, and empowerment as foundations of effective volunteerism. It emphasizes that educated and informed youth can better understand community needs and develop meaningful solutions.

Blue and White Book Pages
The blue and white pages symbolize knowledge, clarity, peace, and responsible action. Their upward and open design suggests that education provides young people with opportunities to learn, lead, volunteer, and contribute to community development.

Circular Design
The circle represents unity, inclusiveness, continuity, and collective responsibility. Because it has no beginning or end, it also symbolizes KISLAP's continuing commitment to volunteerism and sustainable community service.

Blue Outer Circle
Blue represents trust, stability, responsibility, leadership, and integrity. It reflects the organization's goal of developing dependable youth volunteers and responsible leaders who are committed to serving others.

Yellow/Gold Outer Circle
Yellow or gold represents hope, inspiration, optimism, energy, and the spark of positive change. It reinforces the meaning of “KISLAP” and symbolizes the enthusiasm of young people in serving their communities.

Green Outer Circle
Green represents nature, growth, sustainability, renewal, and environmental responsibility. It highlights KISLAP's commitment to projects and programs that contribute to sustainable community development and the SDGs.

YOUTH VOLUNTEERS WORD
This identifies the organization's main strength—the young people who willingly dedicate their time, skills, and energy to helping others. It emphasizes youth participation as an important force for community improvement and sustainable development.

KABATAANG INSPIRASYON SA SERBISYO, LIDERATO AT PAG-UNLAD
The motto expresses KISLAP's core purpose: to inspire young people through service, develop responsible leadership, and contribute to community progress. It connects youth volunteerism with meaningful action, leadership, and sustainable development.

Overall Colors
The combination of blue, yellow/gold, and green represents the organization's three major values: responsible leadership, inspiration, and sustainability. Together, they reflect KISLAP's vision of empowered youth working collectively to create positive and lasting change in the community.

Overall Meaning of Logo
The KISLAP Youth Volunteers logo represents a movement of young people who believe that service begins with inspiration and becomes meaningful through action. The logo recognizes the youth as important partners in community development—not merely as recipients of programs, but as volunteers, leaders, innovators, advocates, and changemakers.

The golden light represents the spark that inspires young people to serve. The three figures symbolize unity, diversity, empowerment, and active youth participation. The open book represents education and knowledge as foundations for effective service. The blue color represents responsible leadership and trust, the yellow/gold represents hope and inspiration, and the green represents sustainability, environmental responsibility, and growth. The circular design represents unity, continuity, and the organization's commitment to sustained service.

Most importantly, the logo reflects KISLAP's vision that one inspired young person can inspire another, and a group of inspired young people can inspire an entire community. Through volunteerism, leadership, education, partnerships, and SDG-focused projects and programs, KISLAP seeks to transform youthful energy into real and sustainable community action.

B. Conclusion
A united generation of young people who are inspired to serve, empowered to lead, and committed to building a better and sustainable community. The combination of the golden light, three youth figures, open book, circular design, and blue, yellow, and green colors express the organization's core values of inspiration, knowledge, leadership, unity, growth, and sustainability. More than a visual identity, the logo serves as a reminder that the youth have the ability to turn their ideas and talents into meaningful community action through volunteerism and SDG-focused initiatives. KISLAP therefore stands as a spark of hope and inspiration, encouraging every young person to serve with purpose, lead with responsibility, and contribute to lasting community development.

ARTICLE I
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Youth Volunteerism and Service
KISLAP shall promote meaningful and voluntary youth participation by encouraging members to share their time, talents, knowledge, skills, and resources in responding to community needs. Volunteers shall uphold the values of compassion, responsibility, integrity, teamwork, and respect while serving as positive examples to their fellow youth.

Section 2. Official Language
Official documents may be prepared in English, Filipino, or both.

Section 3. Safety
Activities shall include reasonable risk assessment and safety measures.

Section 4. Emergency Preparedness
KISLAP shall promote preparedness and coordinate with appropriate authorities during emergencies.

Section 5. Safeguarding
When activities involve minors or vulnerable persons, appropriate consent, supervision, protection, reporting, and referral procedures shall be followed.

Section 6. Environment
KISLAP shall minimize waste and environmental harm and promote responsible environmental practices.

Section 7. Partnerships
Partnerships shall be documented when necessary and shall identify responsibilities, resources, accountability, and safeguarding expectations.

Section 8. Intellectual Property
KISLAP shall respect copyright, trademarks, photographs, publications, and other intellectual property rights.

Section 9. Official Representation
Only authorized representatives may make official statements for KISLAP.

Section 10. Volunteer Recognition
KISLAP may recognize outstanding volunteers through certificates, commendations, service records, leadership awards, and other appropriate recognition.

Section 11. Programs
Major programs should undergo needs assessment, planning, approval, resource and safety planning, implementation, monitoring, and evaluation.

Section 12. SDGs
KISLAP shall encourage programs aligned with the Sustainable Development Goals relevant to local community needs.

Section 13. Grievance Mechanism
KISLAP shall provide a confidential mechanism for reporting misconduct, harassment, abuse, discrimination, financial irregularities, safety concerns, or other violations.

Section 14. Conflict Resolution
The organization shall prioritize peaceful resolution through dialogue, mediation, and fair procedures when appropriate.

Section 15. Interpretation
Where uncertainty exists, interpretation shall favor the Vision, Mission, objectives, welfare of volunteers and beneficiaries, transparency, and applicable law.

Section 16. Youth as Agents of Inspiration and Change
KISLAP shall encourage every youth volunteer to become a source of inspiration and positive influence by demonstrating active citizenship and genuine commitment to community service. Through their actions and leadership, volunteers shall motivate other young people to participate in volunteer activities and contribute to the development of their communities.

Section 17. Community-Based Projects and Programs
KISLAP shall develop and implement community-based projects and programs based on identified needs, available resources, and the participation of local stakeholders. Priority shall be given to initiatives that provide meaningful and sustainable benefits to children, youth, families, vulnerable groups, and the wider community.

Section 18. Sustainable Development Goals Integration

KISLAP shall integrate relevant Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) into its projects and programs, particularly those addressing education, health, poverty, environmental protection, equality, climate action, peace, and community development. Volunteers shall be encouraged to understand how local actions can contribute to broader national and global efforts toward sustainable development.

Section 19. Youth-Led Innovation and Solutions

KISLAP shall encourage youth volunteers to identify community concerns and develop creative, practical, and innovative solutions through projects and programs. The organization shall provide opportunities for young people to contribute their ideas, skills, and leadership in creating initiatives that address local challenges and support the SDGs.

Section 20. Volunteer Capacity Building

KISLAP shall provide or facilitate appropriate training, orientation, workshops, and learning opportunities to strengthen the knowledge and skills of its youth volunteers. Capacity-building activities may include leadership, project management, disaster preparedness, environmental protection, community organizing, first aid, and other skills relevant to effective volunteer service.

Section 21. Community Engagement and Partnership

KISLAP shall encourage meaningful participation of community members in the planning, implementation, monitoring, and evaluation of its projects and programs. The organization may collaborate with schools, barangays, government agencies, non-government organizations, private institutions, community groups, and other stakeholders to strengthen the impact and sustainability of its initiatives.

Section 22. Volunteer Leadership and Role Modeling

KISLAP shall develop youth leaders who demonstrate responsibility, integrity, compassion, accountability, and commitment to service. Officers and volunteers shall serve as role models by practicing the values promoted by the organization and encouraging other young people to become active contributors to their communities.

Section 23. Sustainability and Continuity of Programs

KISLAP shall strive to ensure that its projects and programs are designed for long-term community benefit and continuity, rather than being limited to one-time activities. Whenever possible, projects shall establish responsible practices, community participation, resource planning, and monitoring mechanisms that allow successful initiatives to continue beyond their initial implementation.

Section 24. Monitoring and Community Impact

KISLAP shall monitor and evaluate its major projects and programs to determine their effectiveness, community benefits, and contribution to relevant SDGs. The results of such evaluation shall be used to improve future activities, strengthen accountability, and ensure that volunteer efforts create meaningful and measurable positive change.

Section 25. Promotion of Volunteerism

KISLAP shall actively promote volunteerism through information campaigns, youth activities, community outreach, educational programs, and service opportunities that encourage young people to become involved. The organization shall emphasize that volunteerism is a meaningful expression of citizenship and an opportunity for youth to contribute to a better, more inclusive, and sustainable community.

Section 26. Recognition of Youth Initiative

KISLAP may recognize youth volunteers who demonstrate exceptional initiative, creativity, leadership, commitment, and service in developing or implementing community projects. Recognition shall encourage a culture in which young people are motivated to continue serving and to inspire others through their positive actions.

Section 27. Culture of Service
KISLAP shall foster a culture of continuous volunteerism in which service becomes a shared responsibility and an important part of youth development. The organization shall encourage volunteers to carry the spirit of service beyond official activities by practicing kindness, responsibility, environmental stewardship, and active citizenship in their everyday lives.

Section 28. Youth Volunteerism for the SDGs
All KISLAP volunteers are encouraged to view community service as an opportunity to contribute to the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals through local action. By identifying community needs, mobilizing fellow youth, creating sustainable solutions, and working with community partners, KISLAP shall help demonstrate that young people can be effective partners in achieving sustainable community development.
